

- MAN OF THE MATCH
- CLUB SPONSORS
- PLAYER TRANSFERS
- ANNOUNCEMENTS
- PLAYER UPDATES

"TO BE FAIR, I'VE ALWAYS SAID THAT ONE OF THE MAIN REASONS FOR ME COMING TO GLOUCESTER WAS TO GET THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK WITH HIM (BR)"

DAVE LEWIS INTERVIEW ON PAGE 36

A MOMENT IN HISTORY ON PAGE 62

LONDON WASPS – 1873 MAN OF THE MATCH

ELIOTA Fuimaono-Sapolu was named by the 1873 Club Members as their Man of the Match following the dramatic 22-20 win over London Wasps.

his award from Joshua Thomas and Stanley Kift and then took part in an informal Question and Answer session alongside team mates Paul Doran-Jones and Rory Lawson facilitated by Gloucester Rugby's Head of Sales and Marketing, Pete Grzonka.

For the second home game in succession, Eliota found himself on the scoresheet with the try against Wasps surely an early contender for try of the season as he made good ground before unleashing a hand off that left Dominic Waldouck on his back and sprinting to the line.

Eli came into in the Cathedral Lounge after the game where he received

THANK YOU FROM PIED PIPER!

OUR friends at Pied Piper would like to offer a big thank you to everyone who helped with and, of course, everyone who contributed to the bucket collection at the London Wasps game.

An amazing £1197.03 was raised on the day which is a tremendous effort.

GLOUCESTER RUGBY LAUNCH BUSINESS CLUB

"I AM DELIGHTED TO BE ASSOCIATED WITH GLOUCESTER RUGBY THIS SEASON AND WOULD LIKE TO WISH BRYAN AND THE TEAM ALL THE VERY BEST FOR THE FORTHCOMING SEASON"

IT'S 'READY, STEADY, COOK FOR THE ACADEMY!'

Picture courtesy of the Gloucester Citizen

the foodworks cookery school

Foodworks Cooking School in Colesbourne and arranged for the Academy players to receive a series of cooking lessons where they will be taught basic cooking schools so that they can prepare tasty, nutritious meals for themselves at home.

Josh told the matchday programme: "It's something new for the Academy boys and something I thought they'd find to be fun and interesting and also educational at the same time."

"They were a bit apprehensive but have thrown themselves into it and hopefully will come away being able to prepare themselves some cheap, tasty and nutritious meals."

MEMBERS of the Gloucester Rugby Academy are used to facing challenges on the field of play but found themselves in a slightly different environment last week.

Player Development Manager with the RPA (Rugby Players Association) and, as such, is tasked amongst other things with preparing players for life outside of rugby.

Josh Frape, a former Gloucester player himself of course, is now a

As a result, Josh has touched base with Harriet Elwes of The

WE are delighted to announce the launch of the Gloucester Rugby Business Club which will be a fantastic way to meet likeminded business people and combine the pleasure of watching a game at Kingsholm with the commercial opportunity of meeting potential clients.

Individuals can chat over an informal lunch and beer whilst meeting new contacts and watching some great rugby.

The Business Club will meet up several times per season and our first event will be at the Gloucester vs Saracens game on Saturday November 27th (kick off 4:30pm).

For a full list of all the benefits associated with being a member of the Business Club, please contact Angela Edwards on 01452 872250 or 07775 915959.

Lead Sponsor for the Business Club Launch are Severnside Software Ltd who are also the club's Corporate Pack Sponsor for 2010-11.

Severnside Software Ltd. (SSL) have been providing IT solutions to businesses for over 20 years. They are able to provide IT support to companies who do not have their own IT department and also full software development services.

Their work has taken us not only all over the UK, but also all over the world including Spain, Portugal, Holland, USA, Colombia and Germany. This is because they find solutions to problems that seem completely unsolvable.

They currently have a team of 9 people, based on the Waterwells Business Park in beautiful Gloucestershire. From humble beginnings, they now provide support to over 30 customers across 4 time zones and to many companies based locally.

Roger White of SSL said: "I am delighted to be associated with Gloucester Rugby this season and would like to wish Bryan and the team all the very best for the forthcoming season"